November 2022 - In the context of the first World Cup to be held without Diego Maradona and with the aim of remembering him on the anniversary of his death, DIRECTV, the leading entertainment company that will broadcast live the 64 matches of the greatest soccer event, premieres the documentary Las Hermanas de Diego (Diego's Sisters).

It is a new and recent original DIRECTV production that can be seen on Friday, November 25 at 9 p.m. (Argentina time) exclusively on DNews, the first news signal from Latin America for Latin America, available on channels 700 and 1700 HD of the programming grid, and on its streaming platform DGO. Afterwards, the content will be available in On Demand format on DGO.

Las Hermanas de Diego was filmed in different locations of great relevance in Maradona's life and his soccer career, such as Villa Fiorito, Diego's first home; the Argentinos Juniors club; the house he bought in La Paternal; the house in Villa Devoto; and the shrine in his honor.

The 1-hour documentary, which will be available on DGO to watch anytime, anywhere via cell phone, tablet, smart TV or computer, offers a new look at the figure of the soccer star, including the participation and testimonies of his five sisters: Kity, Ana, Mary, Lili and Cali.

"He told us that the last birthday he was going to spend with us was his 60th, after that he had nothing to do here," revealed Lili, one of Diego's older sisters in an interview that is part of the documentary.

On her part, Mary expressed her wish in reference to her brother: "I want you to rest in peace and to be left to rest in peace" In addition, Maradona's sisters agreed that after his death Boca Juniors did not value him as he deserved.

In addition, DGO offers its users a series of On Demand contents about the sportsman, among which the acclaimed documentary directed by Asif Kapadia stands out. Diego Maradona, which was created with more than 500 hours of unpublished footage of Maradona that the team of filmmakers obtained with Diego's blessing, portrays the life of the Argentine soccer player from his beginnings in the sport to his triumphant stay in Naples.
