

Where DIRECTV goes, so goes the news

DNews: the only news signal in Latin America to cover Elizabeth II's state funeral live

September 2022 - DNews, the first news signal from Latin America for Latin America, available on DIRECTV's programming offer (channel 700 and 1700 HD) and on the DIRECTV GO streaming platform, will broadcast live the events following the death of Queen Elizabeth II.

With coverage from the scene and special programming focused on the late British monarch, DNews is positioned as the only news signal in Latin America to cover the ceremonies following the death of Elizabeth II for the region.

Also, in association with prestigious international networks, DNews will broadcast must-see documentaries that review the life of Queen Elizabeth II and explore different aspects of the history of the British royal family to complement the journalistic coverage of this important occasion.

Additionally, under the theme "Elizabeth II", the DIRECTV GO streaming platform offers its users a special selection of content from its on demand catalog that delves into the figure of the British monarch to watch anytime, anywhere, through devices such as smart TVs, cell phones, tablets and computers.
