

LIGA 1 MAX is live on DIRECTV: how to access it at no additional cost and on up to two live devices.

The leading sports broadcasting company allows all Peruvians to access the best local and international soccer.

Lima, January 15, 2024 — This Sunday, January 21, 2024, the Apertura 2024 Tournament kicks off and DIRECTV will broadcast live matches, in addition to extensive coverage of the championship, through LIGA 1 MAX.

DIRECTV's portfolio of services offers different alternatives to its users to enjoy the Peruvian men's soccer league without any additional costs. In addition, customers will be able to watch the matches live with two electronic devices simultaneously.

DGO's live TV and streaming platform offers the Full plan with LIGA 1 MAX. The content package that, in addition to including local soccer and having a permanent discount of more than 30%, gives access to more than 90 live channels to enjoy more sports, series and movies.

DIRECTV also offers bundles that combine the speed of its home Internet service and the best streaming content from DGO, and of course, access to Peruvian soccer with LIGA 1 MAX.

Customers who opt for the combinations with connection speeds starting at 200 megabytes and the full package of the DGO platform will be able to access the Liga1 matches — at no additional cost — to experience the best of Peruvian soccer live, with previews, replays and minute-by-minute coverage of the games.

From Sunday 21, DIRECTV will continue to bring the passion of the Peruvian fan to your screen.
