

PFL and Bellator fights will be exclusive on DSPORTS FIGHT all year long

Torneos extended the rights agreement with PFL. The fights will be broadcast on DIRECTV and DGO. PFL and Bellator Champions Series live events will continue to be available in Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Uruguay and the Caribbean.

Buenos Aires, February 19, 2024 - Torneos, a leading company in the generation of sports content, extended the broadcast rights agreement with the Professional Fighters League (PFL), the most innovative and fastest growing combat sports league in the world, so that the most impactful fight events will continue throughout 2024 on the screens of DIRECTV and DGO.

The agreement provides for exclusive programming including PFL 2024 global regular season, Bellator Champions Series, PFL Europe, PFL MENA and all PFL and Bellator archival content on the DSPORTS FIGHT channel in Latin America and DGO, the live and streaming TV platform.

DSPORTS FIGHT is on 615/1615 on DIRECTV in Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador and Peru and on 315/2315 HD in Uruguay.

Santiago Sluzewski Monti, Regional Commercial and Rights Director of Torneos, said, "We are thrilled to expand our partnership with PFL and continue to bring world-class wrestling events and content to Latin America."

Hernan Bidegain, Director of Original Content and Programming at DSPORTS, commented: "The variety of content is one of the main features that sets our exclusive sports channel apart. This strategic alliance allows us to further expand our combat sports offerings, meaning more fans in the region".

Peter Murray, CEO of the PFL, stated that "the Professional Fighters League is proud to expand its partnership with Torneos and DIRECTV", the company that has exclusive broadcasting rights in Latin America. "As the PFL continues to grow globally, DSPORTS FIGHT will serve as a dedicated channel for PFL and Bellator content in the region," Murray added.

Argentine fighter Laureano "Pepi" Staropoli will compete in the PFL 2024 global season as a welterweight. Pepi was victorious in his PFL debut when he starred in an exhibition fight at PFL Paris in September 2023.

PFL is the only MMA organization with the sports season format, where individual fighters compete in a regular season, playoffs and championship each year. The combined PFL and Bellator roster boasts 30% of its fighters independently ranked worldwide in the top 25 of their respective weight classes, the same percentage as the UFC.
